Cathy Derbonne
Executive Director
Louisiana State Police Commission
(Via email)

Cathy:

I would like to bring to your attention an issue concerning personal political contributions made by myself while an active member of the State Police Commission. This information is public record, and can be found in listed contributions online at the State's relevant website.

In recent discussions, the issue of political involvement by those in the classified service as well as those members of the commission has come to light. Paraphrasing, it is against the rules for a member of the classified service or member of the commission to be involved in contributing or otherwise supporting political candidates. As found in public record, I want to bring to your attention that I did make contributions during my first term as commissioner, as late as November, 2012. My only excuse for this is a lack of knowledge of the rules.

Once this was brought to my attention, all political support activities by me have halted while serving as an active commissioner. Since being reappointed in July, 2013, having a better understanding of the rules, I have abided by the political participation rules as required.

Furthermore, I would like to note that my wife, Melissa Kyle, does indeed participate in the political process by supporting various candidates. It is my understanding, however, that she is not subject to the State Police Commission rules, therefore her participation is of no concern to the Commission. All contributions that were made by Melissa were done so with her own separate funds and out of her own account.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

With Regards,

Franklin M. Kyle, III
State Police Commission Chairman

Freddie:

I appreciate this email, and completely understand your position. I, too, in my first term, was appointed, sworn in, and given an extensive rule book in which to abide by. It is a cumbersome document, but admittedly one that was provided. I think it would behoove all new in-coming commissioners to be fully briefed on the restrictions placed upon their appointment by the Executive Director and staff so these issues will not occur in the future. Had that been done, I am confident that this issue would have never arisen.

With regards to your service on the Commission, I can't thank you enough for your time, insight, and experience in dealing with the charges of this body. You have truly been an asset to the Commission, and a wonderful blessing to work with. On behalf of the entire Commission and staff, I wish the best in all you do.

Dear Chairman Kyle,

After reading Bill Goldring's email I feel compelled to weigh in on the conversation regarding Commission members making campaign contributions. Like Bill, I did not have the benefit of an orientation when I was sworn in as commission member. Nor was I made aware of such prohibition when Bill or our esteemed Chairman was made aware of the prohibition. It was not until this controversy regarding the State Trooper's Association members questioning the use of association funds to make campaign contribution that I was made privy to the rule through Commissioner Braxton. I then had to call Cathy to find that my name was being mentioned very prominently in a Blog that was reporting on the contribution issue. But for the last minute heads up, I would have been completely caught off guard by the reporter last week who wanted to know if I was being forced or pressured to step down from the Commission. As you may have read, I responded by stating that "I am stepping down of my own volition."

Now that I am fully aware of the prohibition, I feel that I must step down as a Commission Member so I will not feel constrained in my desire to help persons who I would like to support politically. I ran for elective office twice and would not have been successful but the campaign contributions I received from my friends and supporters.

Like all of us who serve on the Commission, it was a fulfillment of my civic responsibility. At no time during my service was I presented with an issue where I was conflicted because a contribution I may have made. And had one presented itself I surely would have recused myself.

I wish the Commission members and staff all the best as you carry out the charge of the Commission.

Cathy,

After reading Franklin Kyle's letter, I felt a need to go the record to be responsive. When first asked to go on the Louisiana State Police Commission by Governor Jindal I hesitated, in that over many decades I had been asked by many governors to serve on various boards and commissions, all of which I had turned down (i.e. Louisiana Board of Regents). Only because of my keen interest and involvement and support of law enforcement for the past 30 years, did I accept. Upon joining the commission there was absolutely no orientation or rules that were given to me. Approximately 3 years ago, there was a vacancy on the commission and I was asked who might be a suitable candidate to fill the spot. I suggested a prominent businessman, Boysie Bollinger who was accepted and sworn in. Within 24 hours he resigned when his attorney informed him of a ruling forbidding anyone on the commission to make political contributions or be involved in a political campaign. Mr. Bollinger personally called me to make me aware of the ruling which I was never informed. I then called and wrote to the governors office to get a full explanation of the responsibilities of commission members, which were never given to me. Since then I have been solicited personally (orally and by mail) by hundreds of people who I have continually turned down as well as sent them a copy of my enclosed correspondence. Just a few are listed below (feel free to contact them).

U.S. SENATOR DAVID VITTER

U.S. SENATOR MARY LANDRIEU

MAYOR MITCH LANDRIEU

U.S. SENATOR WILLIAM CASSIDY

U.S. CONGRESSMAN CEDRIC RICHMOND

U.S. CONGRESSMAN JOHN FLEMING

CITY COUNCILPERSONS STACY HEAD, LATOYA CANTRELL AND SUSAN GUIDRY.

I certainly take my duties and responsibilities seriously and have abided by the framework and regulation of the commission. There is no reward or personal gain by my serving on the Louisiana State Police Commission and only do so as a civic responsibility.

With regards,
Bill Goldring

PS- as a final note, I fully understand rules and regulations put on state troopers, but cannot understand commission members having to adhere to same in that we do not come in contact with the public.

The parties herein, the intended husband and wife, do hereby expressly reserve to themselves individually, the entire administration of their respective particular movables and immovable property, and the respective free enjoyment of each of their revenues.

VII.

All natural and civil fruits and revenues of the separate property of each intended spouse, as well as minerals produced from or attributable to a separate asset, and bonuses, delay rentals, royalties, and shut in payments arising from mineral leases are declared to be and are reserved as the separate property of the intended spouse who owns the thing.

XVIII.

Except as provided in Articles XXII and XXIII below, it is the specific intention of each party to this agreement that neither party to this agreement or any other party under a theory of law shall have an economic claim on the other spouse as a result of the marriage of the spouses and/or as a result of the termination of this marriage.

XIX.

Each party agrees that all deferred compensation benefits including individual retirement accounts, are and shall belong exclusively to the spouse who earned them, whether earned in whole or in part, before or during the marriage. Each agrees to sign such additional documents as may be required by the Internal Revenue Service, the plan administrator or other party to carry out this intention.

XX.

At any time and from time to time, after the celebration of the marriage and without consideration, each of the parties agrees to execute any documents that may reasonably be required to confirm in the other spouse, his separate property or to enable him to administer, control, enjoy, dispose of, manage, alienate, encumber or leave his separate property.

XXI.

The parties declare that the sharing of expenses of the marriage shall not in any way be deemed to create any rights of reimbursement between the spouses, nor shall the sharing of such expenses create any property right whatsoever in the property of the other spouse or any claim against the property of the other spouse.

XXII.

KYLE, III to MELISSA M. NAQUIN.

XXIII.

XXV.

The parties agree that they have been advised by their attorneys of their rights with regard to a Marriage Contract, and acknowledge that they are entering into this agreement freely and voluntarily; that they have ascertained and weighed all of the facts and circumstances likely to influence their judgment herein; that they have been duly appraised of their respective legal rights with respect to a Marriage Contract; that all of the provisions of this agreement, as well as all questions pertinent thereto have been fully and satisfactorily explained to them by their respective attorneys'; that they have been given due consideration to such provisions and questions; and that they understand clearly and assent to all of the provisions of this agreement.
